1. Harrods, perhaps London's most famous department store, is named after Charles Harrods, who opened a family grocer's shop on the site in 1849. The little shop has grown and become a symbol for expensive and glamorous shopping. It contains over 300 departments selling luxury items, from furniture and ladies fashion to sports equipment. Harrods continues to astonish customers from around the world with first-class service and product quality.

2. Oxfam is a chain of shops all over the world, which sells very cheap things. Its aim is to attract shoppers by offering them many second - hand and donated things of good quality. Also anyone can come and bring the books or clothes they no longer need. Oxfam takes everything: from stamps to furniture.

3. Hamleys is the best toyshop in the UK. It has seven floors of toys, games and sweets. The shop assistants often dress up in costumes of famous characters from fairy tales and stories. Because of this the place looks like a magic land. The atmosphere is wonderful, and the shop really has everything young ones could ever want.

4. The Old Umbrella Shop is one of the shops that hasn't changed from the early twentieth century. Inside it looks exactly as it was years ago. There are old telephones, shelves, shop windows and an umbrella museum. What's more, it still sells umbrellas and doesn't want to specialize in anything else. The shop has faithful clients who have been coming there for years.

Shops and Shopping Areas in Britain and in the USA

The first place you go shopping in London could be one of the large stores. This is the kind of shop that sells all kinds of things such as furniture, food, toys, etc. Two famous London department stores are Selfridges's and Harrods's.

Covent Garden is another area of shops and restaurants built in and around the old fruit and vegetable 1....made famous in B. Shaw's Pygmalion and the musical My Fair Lady. Covent Garden is also used for the Royal Opera House in the same area.

Department stores, supermarkets, chemists and other kinds of shops are often called 2....., which means they are part of a group of 3.....belonging to one company.

Shopping, however, is an art of its own and you have to learn slowly where to buy various things. In Britain as well as in America you can find different things at places you 4..... So if you are 5....., you can go to the chemist's (a drugstore in the USA). In large drugstores you may be able to get not only drugs, but 6....., candies, toys, braces, furniture. Every drugstore has a 7.... with high stools in front of it and there they serve various juices, coffee, ice-cream, sandwiches and other dishes.

If you want 8..., go to the grocer's; if you want to have your shoes cleaned, go to the 9...; if you want a radio, go to a man's shop; if you want a suitcase, go to the chemist's. On the other hand, if you want to send 10....they are handled by private companies. Nor has the post office anything to do with the telephone either, as the telephone service 11....by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

You must be extremely careful concerning the names of 12..... If you ask for 13...in a man's shop, you receive a pair of braces; if you ask for a pair of pants, you receive a pair of trousers, and should you ask for a pair of braces, you receive a 14.....You should also be careful about the prices! The sum may be more that appears on the price tags. This is because there's a 15..... in America on everything except basic foods.
